

International youth work of the „Stadtjugendring Stuttgart“ together with associations and youth initiatives in Stuttgart's twin towns and native countries of the members of our member organisations

Finance

Our work is essentially financed by the Franco-German and the German-Polish Youth Office, by programs of EU Union, by national, federal and municipal budgets as well as temporary project funds.

Contact

Stadtjugendring Stuttgart e.V.
Bettina Szotowski
Department International Youth Exchange Programs
Junghansstr.5
70469 Stuttgart
Germany
phone: +49 711 237 26 51
E-Mail: bettina.szotowski@sjr-stuttgart.de

We unite local and international youth work

In our manifold and various activities, we support and promote the idea of a vivid European citizenship.

Qualification

In international teams, leaders of associations, unions, clubs and youth initiatives will learn about how to implement a thematic youth exchange program.

Consulting

We offer support in finding international and local partners, advice on project management in international teams, information on legal framework, and directions as to funding.

Innovation

European values, such as solidarity, tolerance, respect, diversity, inclusion, respect of the human rights, will be experienced in innovative youth exchange programs.

Competence

The youngsters' experiences and manifold capacities will enrich their everyday life.

Networking

International and local networks will foster a change of perspective, an exchange of experience and practical skills and a sustainable development of local youth work in all partner organisations.