

Open call for a volunteering position at Sportkultur

- Location: Stuttgart, Germany
- Duration: 11/01/27 to 24/09/27
- Age: 18-30 years
- Deadline to apply: 12/11/26

SPORT KULTUR STUTTGART

STADTJUGENDRING STUTTGART SJR

Co-funded by the European Union

MOVE ON - SPORT AS A COMMON LANGUAGE

What's Sportkultur?

SportKultur Stuttgart e.V. (https://www.sportkultur-stuttgart.de/home.html) is one of the largest multi-sport clubs in Stuttgart, dedicated to promoting sports, physical activity, and community engagement for all age groups.

The main mission is to inspire people of all ages to stay active and provide them with health-promoting, social, and inclusive sports opportunities.

Our main activities?

- Wide range of sports programs from children's and youth sports to fitness, wellness, and competitive sports.
- Courses, rehabilitation, and preventive health programs
- Holiday programs, events, and sports camps
- Partnerships with schools, kindergartens, and social institutions
- Community engagement and club development initiatives
- Planning and development of modern, sustainable sports facilities

Are you ready to move on at Sportkultur?

Your main tasks will be:

- Supporting sports activities and training groups of all ages, with a particular focus on children and young people.
- Participation in the planning and implementation of holiday programs and sports camps for children
- Assistance in the association organisation, in planning processes, communication and administrative tasks
- Co-creating public relations work on social media
- Participation in the organisation and implementation of events and integrative sports projects
- Spreading mobility opportunities in the European Solidarity Corps
- Contributing your own ideas and implementing a small self-organised project

What kind of person are we looking for?

- Open minded for new experiences and ready to contribute with own ideas
- Interested in sports activities and contributing to fostering not only athletic development but also social cohesion, integration, and volunteer engagement
- Enjoy working with children and young people and supporting their development
- Good English language skills (at least B1.1), German language skills (at least A2)
- Flexible, reliable, motivated and a team player

What will you receive?

- Coverage of travel, accommodation, food, and pocket money. Full health and liability insurance
- Intensive German language course and other language learning opportunities
- Training opportunities in our sports offerings
- Youthpass Certificate demonstrating the acquired competences and skills, and international experience

What can you expect from Sportkultur?

- Tutoring to facilitate your learning and development of new skills
- Mentoring to support your personal growth, well-being and your integration in the local community
- On-Arrival Training and Mid-Term Seminar, organised by the German National Agency

How to apply:

If you're interested in volunteering at Sportkultur Stuttgart, please fill in the application form on Stadtjugendring Stuttgart's website, our coordinating organisation: https://www.sjr-stuttgart.de/hosting/
Send it with your CV to: esc@sjr-stuttgart.de

Welcome to Stuttgart!

- Stuttgart is a multicultural city with a population of around 600,000 and is the capital and largest city of the federal state of Baden-Württemberg. The city is located by the Neckar river and is only an hour's drive from the Swabian Jura and the Black Forest.
- It offers a wide range of leisure activities and cultural events.
- “Sport in the park”. An initiative of the city that offers free sports activities between May and September
- And a lot of other activities offered by our sports club!